leaf" and that will save the printers lots of lettering" and says, "Oh, let it go, the firemen will take care of it." Now, gentle ladies and gentlemen, I put it to you, it is nice to be able to know that we have a perfectly swell volunteer fire company? These fine citizens are "on the job" 24 hours around the clock, and as much as I love and respect everyone in Old Appomattox, I end this column with a "salute" to our volunteer firemen. Devils Down Rebels 49-41

The Rustburg Devils beat the Appomattox Rebels 49-41 in one of the Rebels closest games of the season. The Devils have a 9-1 record in district play, and are of the leading teams in the district. But the close score shows that the Rebels are making a comeback and should expect to win in the very near future. The score was tied many times in the course of the game. Appomattox coming into the lead several times after a fast break and goal.

Boopie Whitehead took the scoldiest with 23 points followed by Jimmy Terrence with 7 points.

The score at halftime was 20-6 in favor of Rustburg. Appomattox scored 12 points in the first quarter and 8 points in the second.

This gives the Rebels a 3-4 record in district play, which puts them in fourth place. But the Rebels may surprise you and beat William Campbell Tuesday night and come up to third place.

The Appomattox Girls Varsity lost 46-31 to the Rustburg girls. This gives the girls a 3-3 record in district play. The game was a close one for the girls until the last minutes of the final quarter. The score was 19-14 at halftime in favor of Rustburg.

Joyce Tolley sparked the Rebels with 20 points followed by Mary L. Tolley with 10 points.

Mary Libbey Tolley was chosen as a candidate for the trophy that Rustburg is giving at the end of the season for the best sportsman. Eve Ann Moore was chosen last time we played Rustburg as a candidate. The girls chosen are the ones on the teams that play Rustburg during the course of the season. The one most eligible is chosen as the final winner of the trophy.

The girls team played with only 12 members Friday night as three were not able to play.

Both teams would appreciate everyone's support for the coming game with Altivista Friday night. Everyone please make a special effort to come out to see your teams play and give them the support they need.

Birthday Arrived; Dinner Delayed

The biting cold of the last week has caused hardship for many county people. For R. A. Glenn, Rt. 1, Appomattox, it meant a delay for a special occasion, his birthday dinner.

Glenn, who was 88 on Saturday, has for years been given a birthday dinner by his close friends, "Doc" and Mrs. C. F. James.

This year the intense cold put a "quick freeze" on their plans, and all three agreed to wait for a warmer day to celebrate.

Mr. Glenn did report that his daughter and son - in - law, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Pavlowski, of Stamford, Conn., plus Bobby Pavlowski, Billy and Diane Sileo, and his great granddaughter, Lisa, 7 mos. old, warmed up the long distance telephone line with a half hour birthday call.

Mr. Glenn was born in 1875, the famous "Grasshopper year" when great swarms of 'hoppers ravaged the West.

Memorial Methodist Church

Two Pre - Lenten - Holy Communion Services will be conducted Sunday — with the Chapel Choir giving special music for the morning service, and Minister's Meditation will be "Cleansed by Confession". This service will make the beginning of the Ninth Month of the current Conference Year, and a most wonderful year it has been in the new sanctuary and church school facilities.

For the Evening Service "The Annual School of Missions" begining at 5:45 o'clock, the entire assembly will enjoy a fellowship sandwich supper and immediately following three separate devotions will be conducted for the Adult Group by Dick Martin; the Youth Group by Mrs C. T. Moses, Jr. and for the Primary and Juniors by Mrs. M. A. Hernecall.

The Adult Study will be presented at 6:30 o'clock by James A. Smith and the other two studies groups will convene at the same hour for their particular emphasis of the School of Missions, with Mrs. J. W. Jennings, Chairman of the Commission in General Charge of the School. A most commendable number assembled on last Sunday evening, despite the cold weather. To hear Mrs. V. R. Turner former missionary in Korea, and this Sunday evening, a native Chinese young lady, student in Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, will be the guest speaker for the Young People in their discussion group.

7:30 o'clock — Evening Worship service will be conducted in the Sanctuary with the Sanctuary Choir giving the special music, and the Chinese Young lady giving impressions of the effective-ing results of the Methodist Mission work in her native land. The minister will be assisted in the service by several of the laymen and laywomen in presenting the scripture and prayers for the service, which will close the observance of the Pre-Lenten Holy Communion.

Monday, 7:15 to 8 o'clock, the pastor will present a Bible Study of the "Message of the Book" using the text in the basic Christian Study series by Charles M. Laymon. These study - prayer groups will be prelude for the Spring Lay - Witness Mission to be held simultaneously with all of the Methodist Churches in the Lynchburg District during the week of March 24th, with visiting
